NEW IRS SCAM

There have recent reports of citizens being contacted by phone by individuals who claim to be working for the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The caller advises that the citizen owes the IRS money and unless payment is made immediately a warrant for their arrest will be obtained. In a recent case in Montgomery County the scammer claimed to be with the Greenbelt Police Department. The IRS does NOT contact citizens by phone for money owed and they do not involve local law enforcement in this way. If you receive a call similar to this, hang up and report the incident to police.
